

Celebrating the Holidays During COVID-19

The Holidays will be different this year for everyone due to COVID-19. Restrictions for COVID-19 in the province will remain in effect until January 8, 2021 at midnight.

Do's

- ❄️ Celebrate with friends and family virtually
- ❄️ Shop for gifts online
- ❄️ Watch holiday movies at home
- ❄️ Build a snowman with members of your household
- ❄️ Mail a letter to Santa
- ❄️ View holiday lights with your family from the car
- ❄️ Attend religious or cultural ceremonies virtually

Don'ts

- ❄️ Host a holiday party or gathering with people outside the members of your household, or if you live alone, your "core bubble" of up to 2 people.
- ❄️ Travel within BC or outside of the province unless it is essential.
- ❄️ Hug or shake hands
- ❄️ Share food or drinks

Staying Connected

We encourage everyone to connect with friends and family virtually.

Below is a list of free virtual calling systems to help you stay connected with friends and family.

- ❄️ Zoom
- ❄️ Google
- ❄️ Facebook Messenger
- ❄️ Skype
- ❄️ Facetime
- ❄️ WhatsApp

Continue to...

- ❄️ Practice social distancing and remain 6 ft apart
- ❄️ Wear a mask in all public indoor spaces
- ❄️ Wash your hands frequently with soap and water.
- ❄️ Stay home if you are sick
- ❄️ Stay home if you, or someone you live with, is at a higher risk for severe illness from COVID-19
