Use of Fish

Fish caught under this licence are for food, social and ceremonial purposes. Without prejudice to future agreements or regulations, sale of Fish caught under this licence is not permitted.

Designation of Individuals

Tsilhqot'in National Government or their authorized representatives will designate any additional persons to fish by issuing designation cards. The Tsilhqot'in National Government will prepare a list of its members who have documentation establishing membership with the First Nation, but who are not designated to fish under authority of this licence. Once the list is provided to DFO (Rob Martin, Resource Manager), the members of the First Nation whose names are on the list are not designated to fish under authority of this licence.

A designation card is personal and non-transferable and will bear the name of the person designated to fish under authority of this licence. Designation cards must contain details of this licence including the species which may be harvested, fishing times, harvest allocations, fishing gear, fishing areas and reporting requirements.

A designation card or documentation establishing membership in the First Nation must be carried at all times by individuals fishing under authority of this licence while participating in the Fishery or while transporting fish harvested in the Fishery. A designation card or documentation establishing membership in the First Nation must be presented to any fishery officer, conservation officer or RCMP officer upon request.

Catch Monitoring and Harvest Reporting

Harvest monitoring will be conducted by the First Nations. Catch information will be collected by Tsilhqot'in National Government, and Northern Shuswap Tribal Council, as agreed to with DFO technical staff and submitted to the appropriate DFO staff in a mutually determined format, on Monday of each week, during the fishing season.

Catch and effort information will be reported to Steven Ratko or a designated assistant. Contact information as follows:
